NZGM update

HHHi all

Merry Christmas and best wishes for a hashy new year

I hope you've managed to have a lovely Christmas, relaxed, caught up with friends and family and raised a few glasses. I've had a great break in the Coromandel... a bit of kayaking, fishing, swimming, walking, and a whole lot of eating & drinking :-)

Time has flown by; I can't believe we're almost in 2023. I looked back to my last email update and it was a wee while ago! Despite Covid, flu and a few other nasties, I've managed to catch up with a decent number of hash clubs around the country (and beyond) over the time - not too much down time!!

The Amazing Hash Hunt

My Amazing Hash Hunt has been busy this year! I've now covered most of the board, plus added some extras with a couple of new Hash clubs starting up, which is epic! It is so good getting out and catching up with hashers all over the country - seeing what everyone is up to, and that hashing is going strong.

Not completely in order, and some were visited more than once, but here's a taste of where I've been, who I've caught up with and some of the great H3 events that have been on....

Auckland, Auckland Hussies, North Shore Hussies, Woefull, Taupo, Mangawhai Heads, Wellington, Port Nicholson Geriatrics, Wellington Ladies, First Light Gisborne weekend, Blackball weekend, Norwest, Energy, Surfin, Nomad weekend, Ditch, Thirsty Thursday Taniwha, Tokoroa, Winter Camp weekend, Soroako Auckland sub branch, Matarangi, Mt Maunganui... and Interhash in Goa.

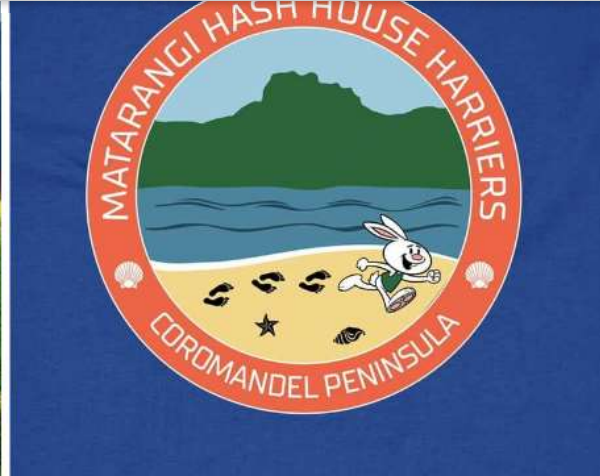

Here's to our newest hash clubs

Welcome to a couple of newer hash clubs. Check them out if you're in their area:

- Matarangi H3 in the Coromandel started in November 2021 and meet once a month on a Saturday. Be prepared for the 'dice' and 'stiff arm' in their circle (pics below). Find them through the Directory on the nzhhh website or on Facebook.
- Otepoti H3 in Dunedin started earlier this year. Find them on Facebook.

And whilst they aren't a new hash, we welcome one of the lesser known Auckland groups, 'Soroako Auckland sub branch (currently pending)' to the nzhhh website. They generally run on the 3rd Thursday of each month, usually within a 30 min drive of central Auckland. Find them on the nzhhh website.

Interhash 2022 - Goa

November saw a few intrepid kiwis plus a few hundred others congregate in India for Interhash 2022, plus associated pre and post lubes.

Due to short notice, Covid, visa issues, and many hashers going to Trinidad & Tobago earlier in the year, numbers at Goa were a lot lower than usual for Interhash.

But the mismanagement committee did an excellent job at super short notice - a beachside venue within walking distance of hotels, plentiful drinks, live entertainment each night, tasty food, stunning trails and fun circles.

It was so good to travel overseas again and meet hashers from all over the world.

NZ Nash Hash 2023

If you haven't registered for NZ Nash Hash (14-16 April 2023) at Bethany Park in Kaiteriteri, and you want to go along, you might be in luck! Due to some last minute cancellations there are a few spots available. Email nznashhash23@gmail.com. Rego forms etc can be found here. And the Nash Hash Facebook page is below:

Nzhhh.nz and NZH3 On On Facebook pages

There are some great NZ resources available to help promote clubs and H3 events. Check that your club's details are up to date on www.nzhhh.nz – make sure your club is listed, and that the dates, times, contact details, upcoming events and web links etc are all current. Let Deep Throat know of any updates by contacting him on alan.seerup@gmail.com Remember to leverage the NZH3 On On Facebook page – it is there for clubs to use and to promote upcoming H3 events.

NZ Nash Hash 2025 bidders

A great Kiwi Nash Hash event is integral every 2 years; if your club would like to put in a bid for NZ Nash Hash 2025, please let me know ASAP. We have confirmation that the combined Auckland hash clubs will be putting in a bid.

Upcoming events

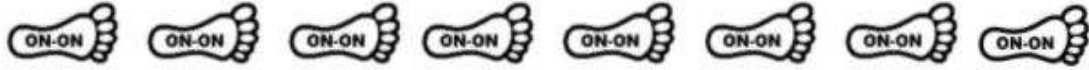

As well as NZ Nash Hash 2023 there are a few other events to check out.

Find out more about these and other events at www.nzhhh.nz, the NZH3 On On Facebook page, or contact the relevant hash club.

- Territory Nash Hash, Darwin (12-14 May 2023)
- NZ Nash Hash (14-16 April 2023)
- Interhash (8-10 March 2024)
- Eurohash 2023 (fully booked)
- Pan Africa Hash, Malawi (28-30 April 2023)

If anyone has any news that they'd like to share and/or upcoming events, please let me know so we can get it out there.

That's all for now folks. I hope to see out and about hashing in 2023, especially at NZ Nash Hash, when I hand over my auspicious NZGM title to the next lucky person!
